

Cupid Gets Help on Saturdays

A plan to assist cupid that ties in with Valentine's Day and Leap Year is now in effect in Los Angeles County.

The idea is to make one of Los Angeles County's 229 judges available each Saturday to marry couples.

That ties in with Valentine's Day.

At that rate, each judge in the county would be doing "cupid duty" once each four years. That, roughly, ties in with Leap Year, when the ladies are permitted to do the wooing.

The action came following the news that a judge had conducted more than 1,400 marriages on Saturday last year in the hallway of the County Courthouse.

"A marriage ceremony should be dignified," said Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, "not something brief and hurried conducted behind a pillar in a hallway."

There is no fee. The lone "marrying judge," it was said, accepted as a gratuity which usually was $5 or $10.

Hahn added that the idea was not to promote civil ceremonies of marriage, but to meet a need.

Shery Files for Election To Board of Education

Dr. Kurt T. Shery, a member of the Board of Education of the Torrance Unified School District, Monday filed for election.

Two years ago, Dr. Shery ran for election on a platform of which, he said, 75 percent has been adopted by the board.

Dr. Shery later was appointed to the board.

"Education is a continuing process," said Dr. Shery in announcing his candidacy, "and the goal to be attained remains the same—a well-rounded preparation for life for all students."

Dr. Shery added that "Torrance schools are overcrowded now and can expect an increase of almost 25 percent in the next four years. To meet this growth we must have dynamic leadership, men of experience, dedicated foresight and courage of conviction."

Dr. Shery points to his record as sustaining those qualifications and as a basis for support in the coming election.
